(sessions of the Forum working groups)
Registration for the Conference

18:00-22:00 Guided city tour and traditional dinner in the historic city centre of Dresden

21.06.2011

10:00-12:00 Annual General Assembly of the Forum of Insurances against Accidents at Work and Occupational Diseases

12:00-13:00 Registration for the Conference

13:00-13:30 Conference opening speeches

13:30-15:00 Insurance

Speakers in the insurance panel will present current developments and future challenges in accident insurance systems worldwide.
Key questions to be discussed are: What new and emerging risks do we have to prepare ourselves for, today? Can solutions be found solely on the national level? What role can international cooperation play?

15:30-17:00 Prevention

The prevention panel will focus on innovative international approaches in creating safer and healthier workplaces. A closer look at groundbreaking international research-alliances (e.g. in ergonomics) will display the added value of international cooperation for national OSH systems, worldwide.

18:00 Evening reception and dinner

22.06.2011

09:30-11:00 Rehabilitation and Return to Work

The rehabilitation and return to work panel will display successful strategies in various national settings and discuss how they can be made available for other jurisdictions, as well

11:30-13:00 Added value of international cooperation

This panel will sum it all up: What exactly is the value added through international cooperation? How can new international alliances among accident insurers be fostered? Can the conference establish new partnerships between accident insurers to their mutual benefit?

13:15 Closing remarks

13:30 End of conference

An official invitation and further information on the agenda will follow in the spring of 2011.

The idea

More than ever, international cooperation is necessary to cope with the challenges of the 21st century: Answers to globalisation, the changing world of work and demographic shifts cannot be found in singular, national approaches alone. At its 2011 conference the Forum will “go global” and “look abroad”: It will examine the added value of international cooperation, look for benchmark-approaches in different continents and examine the value of international cooperation for accident insurance operations in different jurisdictions.

The host

The conference is hosted by the German Social Accident Insurance (DGUV). DGUV holds the presidency of the European Forum of Insurances against Accidents at Work and Occupational Diseases in the year 2011. The Forum represents 21 institutions responsible for statutory accident insurance in 18 countries in Europe. Their common goal is to promote and reinforce the principles of statutory accident insurance and to serve as focal point for statutory accident insurance matters in Europe and worldwide.

The participants

If you want to share your experience and good practices with other accident insurers in Europe and worldwide or if you want to draw on the expertise of others to tackle a specific challenge you are facing in your system; if you want to establish new partnerships or just hear about lessons learned and new activities planned by your peers – this conference will be of great value to you.

The languages

We will provide simultaneous interpretation in English, French, Italian, German and Spanish
